Daubert Plant Hit By Fire in Chicago

The Daubert Chemical Company, which is moving a new manufacturing plant to Dixon, suffered an estimated $250,000 loss in its Chicago operation Monday night.

City Council Approves Budget

The Dixon City Council today approved the proposed appropriation and budget ordinances for the coming fiscal year and received the annual audit of city accounts.

The budget of expenses adopted set the cost of city government at $1,469,000 for the next 12 months.

Commissioner of Public Finance Harold Rorer said the budget is drawn with a realistic anticipation of the city's revenue. He commented the budget should leave the city coffers with a slight surplus at the end of the year.

A miscalculation last year caused the budgeted receipts to be overestimated by some $100,000. Rorer observed this had been corrected and that each commissioner has trimmed his budget as much as possible to live within the expected income.

The commissioner said at the end of the fiscal year in 1961, the city had $5,700 unpaid bills outstanding; that at the end of the current year, April 30, there were $2,500 in unpaid bills. He pointed out this is a reduction of $3,200 and that it is a goal of the present council to leave office, next year, with all bills paid.

Mayor George Lindquist observed that during his administration the council had left all parking meter revenue in that fund rather than transfer monies to the general fund as past councils had done. The mayor said this meant the present council has had about $25,000 less to operate on each year.

A Daubert executive told the Telegraph early today the fire started in a chemical mixing room, forcing several workers of the night shift to flee. No injuries were reported.

Firemen from 15 Chicago suburbs battled the blaze for more than six hours. It started about 9 p.m. and was brought under control shortly after midnight.

The Chicago Daubert Chemical plant is located in the southwest suburb of Forest View directly north of Midway Airport. They have been at this location for about 10 years.

The plant occupies some 150,000 square feet and it has been estimated that 50 per cent of the building was destroyed.

No Affect Here

The Daubert official today said the Chicago fire would not affect the Dixon installation. No machinery that was to be sent to Dixon was involved in the blaze.

The executive also told the Telegraph that work from the Chicago plant was being rescheduled into other locations. Daubert operates chemical plants in Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia and Los Angeles.

The company is undergoing a complete audit so that damage to equipment, inventory and machinery can be accurately determined.

Reconstruction plans have not been discussed but officials of the company are meeting today to explore the re-establishment of the Chicago operation.

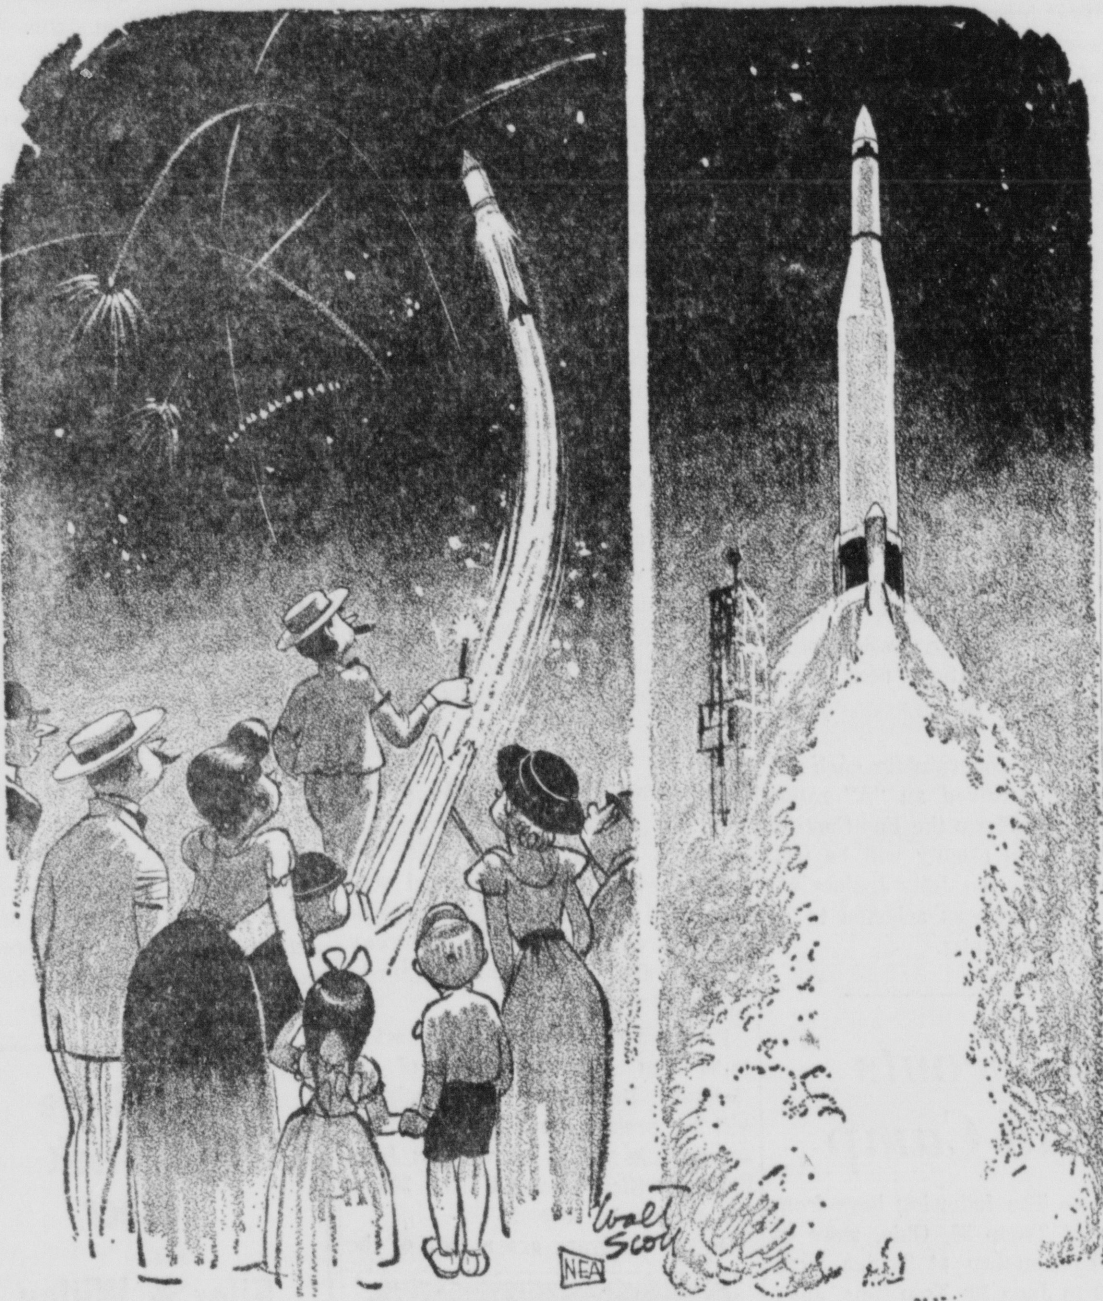

Different Type

The Telegraph today queried the company executives whether this fire would speed up the installation of equipment in the Dixon plant. He pointed out the Dixon operation is a different type than the plant which suffered from the Monday night fire.

He said, the local manufacturing plant construction would continue on schedule. Some equipment has already been installed at the Daubert site at the Dixon Industrial Assn. land east of the city.

Governors Trade Jibes; Oppose Guard Slashes

HERSHEY, Pa. (P)—Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Wesley Powell of New Hampshire traded sharp-tongued jibes today in a Governor's Conference discussion of transportation.

With Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California egging them on, the two Republican governors squared off over the issue of whether there should be a federal department of transportation.

Their clash came as reports cir-

Rossellini of Washington was expected to be elected the new chairman to succeed Gov. Wesley Powell of New Hampshire.

The future of the National Guard was the major item on the Monday agenda which wound up with the governors taking a "no compromise" position against the Kennedy administration plan to pare down and streamline the Guard and Reserve system. This was outlined in the key speech by Secretary of Defense Roberto S. McNamara.

The governors listened politely and stungly applauded McNamara's scientifically oriented explanation of why they should give up 295 National Guard units. They were unimpressed with an hour's closed meeting with the secretary.

Sharp Retort

As Gov. S. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia put it afterwards, the governors were willing to sit down and reason with McNamara about the matter, but, by the Continental Congress, they were not going to have

July 4th Activities Scheduled

Tomorrow, July 4, the day that should make you proud to call yourself an American, commemorates the 186th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Old man weather isn't quite sure yet as to what he's going to do as forecasters call for warm and humid weather with the possibility of thundershowers.

But as for Dixonites, there will be many things occurring.

Whether you stretch out under your favorite shade tree in a hammock or desire to get into the active swing of things, there's a place for it in Dixon tomorrow.

The day will start at Reynolds Field where All-Star Little League and Pony League games are scheduled for 10 a.m. Dixon's Junior American Legion plays DeKalb in the afternoon.

Throughout the Dixonland area, families will gather with loved ones and friends for picnics and get-togethers.

During the afternoon and evening, a carnival on Lincoln Statue Drive in front of the High School will be in progress for the public's amusement.

The Dixon City Band will hold a band concert at the band shell on Page Drive at 8 p.m.

And as always, fireworks will conclude the day at 9:15 p.m. They will be shot on the island between the bridges.

BEHIND THIS DOOR—Lies both an opportunity and a challenge for David Edelson, newly appointed superintendent of Dixon State School. Edelson is shown approaching the door of the Administration Building at DSS Monday. Behind the door are more than 1,100 employees of the School and more than 5,000 residents both of whom will be under his care, custody and guidance.

Edelson Takes Over Reins Of Dixon State School

David Edelson, formerly asst. superintendent of the East Moline State Hospital and a one-time member of the Dixon State School staff, Monday took over the reins at DSS as superintendent.

The new superintendent said it was like coming home. He commented that many of the present staff were here when he was associated with the DSS staff. Edelson indicated he felt this would accelerate his new move and that he had and continues to have a high regard for the staff at DSS.

"With the wealth of knowledge and experience of the staff," Edelson prophesied, "It will be our goal to give northern Illinois as good a treatment center for the retarded as can be found."

He observed that DSS had the concern and interest of Dr. Francis J. Gerty, director of the Department of Mental Health.

The superintendent said all these things pointed toward a "positive basis" on which to start his administration and work toward a continually improved program for DSS.

Edelson pointed out that the improved facilities which are expected in the early future from the Mental Health Bond issue that voters passed in 1960, will definitely improve the care the staff can give the residents. The proposed new buildings and equipment include a surgical, medical and improved dietary facilities.

Lady Churchill Visits Husband

LONDON (P)—Sir Winston Churchill, now recovered enough to sit up out of bed, was visited by his wife today in Middlesex Hospital. Lady Churchill told reporters, "He is getting on very nicely."

Premier Flies From Tunis Amid Threat of Civil War

ALGIERS (P)—French President Charles de Gaulle proclaimed Algerian independence today and Nationalist Premier Ben Youssef Ben Khedda arrived with his ministers to assert their rule over a new nation threatened with civil war.

The triumphant return of the former rebel fighter was darkened by the threat of a military uprising by 4,500 mutinous Moslem guerrillas who want to put radical Vice Premier Ahmed Ben Bella in power. Ben Bella opposes Ben Khedda's policy of cooperation with France.

Flies from Tunis

Ben Khedda flew from Tunis, his headquarters while he directed the exile regime in its campaign to throw off 132 years of French rule. He was the first to leave the plane. Algeria's independence became effective at 10:30 a.m.—4:30 a.m. EST—as the result of a statement issued by De Gaulle following a special meeting of the French Cabinet.

Late Monday night, as crowds of roaring, cheering Moslems roamed the streets of Algiers celebrating the overwhelming vote Sunday for independence, guerrillas loyal to Ben Khedda's government took control of public buildings in the capital to deny them to Ben Bella's dissidents.

Open Mutiny

Some 3,000 guerrillas in central Algeria were in a state of open mutiny, led by Maj. Si Mokhtar. They were joined by an estimated 1,500 soldiers of the French-led Moslem local security force. About 30 French officers and noncommissioned officers were with them, presumably against their will.

The insurgent troops backed the cause of Ben Bella, the radical vice premier who fled from Tunis to Tripoli after a violent clash with Ben Khedda and other moderate members of the nationalist regime.

Laotian Problems To Private Talks

GENEVA (P)—The 14-nation Laotian conference decided to thresh out its few remaining differences in private after the United States and Red China clashed over U.S. troops in Thailand at Monday's opening session.

Delegates agreed unanimously to leave the remaining issues to the conference co-chairmen, Britain's Malcolm MacDonald and the Soviet Union's Georgi Pushkin, to avert any more open squabbles that could jar the precarious Laos peace accords. The Western powers are hopeful that if things go smoothly, the delegates can complete a treaty in two or three weeks to guarantee the neutrality and independence of the Southeast Asian kingdom.

Touch Off Exchange

Red China and North Viet Nam touched off Monday's exchange during a three-hour session of speeches welcoming the formation of a coalition Laotian government.

Red Chinese delegate Chang Han Fu accused the United States of heightening tensions in Southeast Asia by sending troops to Thailand and by "armed intervention" in South Viet Nam and the Formosa Strait.

North Vietnamese delegate Hoang Nguyen charged that the success of the conference was "seriously threatened by the presence of U.S. troops in Thailand."

Harriman Protests

W. Averell Harriman, U.S. assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, protested that the Communists had broken conference rules by bringing up issues not involving Laos.

The question of U.S. troops in Thailand was out of order, he said, "just as it would be for me to raise the question of foreign military personnel who are well known to be present in North Viet Nam as well as certain other neighboring countries."

Red Chinese units have been reported in North Viet Nam.

Reds Build Wall Along Border Line

BERLIN (P)—Working behind a screen of smoke and tear gas, the Communists began building a wall along West Berlin's border with East Germany Monday night. There was some suspicion they planned to surround West Berlin with concrete and steel barriers.

The Communists have virtually completed the barricade they began last August along the 26-mile border between East and West Berlin. Until Monday night, the 69-mile rough arc marking West Berlin's boundary with East Germany had been fenced off only with barbed wire.

West Berlin police said the extension work began at Falkensee Chaussee, a broad street leading from the East German village of Falkensee into the northwest corner of the divided city. Trucks unloaded concrete slabs there and at Seegfelder Weg, a parallel street about 1,000 yards to the south.

East German police threw tear gas and smoke bombs at the West to screen the activity, but West Berlin police could see the workmen laboring under floodlights in a cold rain to replace the barbed wire with masonry.

The extent of the Communist plans to extend the wall could not be determined immediately. The work began only a day after East German Interior Minister Karl Maron called on his police to make the "protective wall even more impenetrable."

Senator H. Byrd Denounces Chamber's Tax Slash Call

WASHINGTON (P)—Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, today denounced the U.S. Chamber of Commerce's call for a substantial income tax cut.

Byrd said the reduction would be inflationary and would mean a $15-billion federal deficit.

Byrd thus joined the committee's senior Republican, Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., in assailing the chamber's proposal.

Williams told the Senate Monday that "while it may be politically popular at the time, the long-range inflationary results for Americans would be disastrous."

He declared that "I refuse to have any part of such irresponsible action as to endorse a tax cut in the face of our present deficit."

Byrd told a reporter he would have a detailed statement on the chamber's recommendation later.

Would Chop Revenue

But he said that congressional tax experts already had advised him that the proposal would chop tax revenues by $9.5 billion a year instead of the maximum $7.5 billion estimated by chamber officials.

Byrd said he was convinced that even without a tax reduction there would be a federal deficit of $6 billion in the fiscal year which began Sunday.

Thus, Byrd said, the chamber's tax proposal would lead to a deficit of more than $15 billion.

Williams aimed a broadside at Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, a Republican, and Michael V. DeSalle of Ohio, and Edmund G. Brown of California, Democrats. He said he had noted they had joined "in the parade calling for an immediate tax reduction."

"Significantly, last week at the governors' conference we find that the governors were calling for more and more federal aid from Washington," Williams said.

"These governors, as well as the President of the United States Chamber of Commerce, know full well that a tax cut in the face of a continuous rise in government spending would lead to a staggering deficit. A deliberately planned deficit of such proportions at this time would be the most inflationary action this administration could take."

Soblen Still Can't Travel

LONDON (P)—Dr. Robert Soblen probably will not be well enough to travel to the United States "for at least another two or three days," a hospital spokesman announced today.

The fugitive spy who tried to commit suicide to escape a life sentence in the United States spent a fairly comfortable night and the improvement in his condition was maintained, the spokesman said.

Soblen, convicted of spying for the Soviet Union, forfeited $100,000 bail and fled to Israel last week. He slashed his wrists and stabbed himself in the stomach Sunday as an airplane returning him from Tel Aviv was winging over the English Channel.

Habits Affect Prices

Summer's here and no one wants to spend long hours in a hot kitchen when it's cooler eating out on the patio. So roasts come off the weekly food lists and steaks for charcoal grilling go on it.

USDA's Economic Research Service says the family move to outdoor living influences prices all the way back through the marketing channel, from the meat counter to wholesaler, to meat packer, to farmer.

The usual pattern is for the wholesale and retail prices of steaks to pick up around February or March, rise until July or August and then fall off until the following spring. Prices of roasts go the other way. They drop the early part of the year before starting to climb again in July.

Children Need Precautions

A few special precautions when children ride in your car can help to guarantee an accident-free trip.

Lock the back doors to prevent little children from opening the doors enroute. For extra safety, install an outside latch to keep the doors from being opened from the inside.

Doors can also cause trouble when you're stopped. Be sure the children's hands and feet are clear of the door before closing it.

It's also a good idea to teach children to stay seated when the car is moving. If they can't see what is going on without standing, fix them raised seats.

You can also get safety harnesses and belts for children to make travel by car more pleasant and safe.

Enjoy Water Safety

The "ol' swimmin' hole" takes dozens of lives through drowning every year, and nearly half of its victims are farm people.

Records show that poor judgment and lack of skill are to blame for most of these tragedies. Nine out of ten drowning victims are nonswimmers. This means that one of the best ways to halt such tragedies is to make sure members of your family can swim. Youngsters should be given the chance to learn while they are young.

Even if you're an expert swimmer, obey safety rules. Don't swim alone or when you are tired or overheated. Wait at least an hour after eating before going into the water. And don't swim in unfamiliar water by yourself.

If you're a fisherman, you should also know how to swim, as drownings often occur when a boat overturns far from shore. To prevent such accidents, take only as many people as your boat can handle safely. Make everyone stay seated when the boat is moving. And watch the weather to avoid getting caught in a storm.

The rain we received this weekend was very helpful for the corn crop. Last weekend I visited with my parents in Southern Illinois. While traveling through the state, we noticed the corn crop was excellent. It was somewhat ahead of this area, however. The corn crop in central Illinois is the best it has been in years.

Will Congress have another farm program? Most leaders think that the present grain program will continue.

The County 4-H Club Show will be held Aug. 2 and 3 at the County Fair Grounds. Entries are due July 16. 4-H'ers should see their leaders.

The grasshopper hatch was heavy last week. "Pete" Petty and I checked two fields last week and found "hoppers" just hatching. They were very serious. Use Toxaphene or Dieldrin in fields not to be harvested for forage.

Farmers from Sandusky County, Ohio, will visit the Nefstead Farm, Kings, Aug. 14. Farmers from North Carolina will visit the county July 10.

July is a time for camping. The extension staff will take turns attending with the boys and girls. Mrs. Pearl Barnes, Home Adviser, and I are attending this week (July 2-7) with the older 4-H Club members. Ray Mowers, Assistant Farm Adviser, and Frances Reeves, Assistant Home Adviser, with other counselors will attend next week, July 9-14.

We wish to congratulate each 4-H Club which received an "A" rating in the County Share the Fun Contest. We know Ogle County will be well represented by the Jolly Juniors 4-H Club whose act was selected to be the most outstanding.

Jack Neis and Conrad Knuth took the boys to camp and Richard Phillips and Audrey Monier brought them home.

Thursday evening all of the families attended the camp ceremonies and Tom O'Malley and David Monier were selected for Order of the Arrow. These two boys also received their Life Saving merit badge.

Over a thousand people enjoyed delicious barbecued chicken at White Eagle Camp, June 24.

The farm advisers did a fine job of barbecuing. Many persons asked about barbecuing chickens at home. It's best to use ready-to-cook broilers or fryers weighing from 1 1/4 to 2 1/2 pounds. Use uniform halves or quarters.

If you use frozen chicken be sure to thaw them completely.

Baste each piece with barbecue sauce immediately. A pastry brush may be used. At White Eagle when they are barbecuing hundreds of halves a new mop is used to put on the basting sauce. They use oil or butter, vinegar and water plus seasonings for the sauce. You may have a favorite recipe or buy a commercial sauce.

Turn the pieces every five minutes and baste after each turning. Use tongs or a pair of clean canvas gloves for turning. A fork will pierce the skin and permit juices to run out.

The key to successful barbecuing is long slow cooking. Allow at least 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 hours of cooking time for broilers. The chicken is done when the drumstick can be easily loosened from the meat.

COMEBACK

During the 1840s, boat tonnage along the Mississippi River system accounted for more than half of all that registered in the United States. Railroads, highways and planes relegated the plodding river boat to the past, but two world wars reversed the trend and, since 1945, Mississippi traffic has grown year by year.

High Court Decision Strict Interpretation

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Now that the dust has settled a bit after the explosive argument over the Supreme Court's prayer decision, it may be in order to examine the decision's effects:

Just what does it do and what doesn't it do?

It does not mean: That "In God We Trust" will disappear from the coins in your pocket; That "In God is our trust" will vanish from the nation's official anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner." That the Supreme Court crier will have to stop crying: "God save the United States and this honorable court."

The decision does mean: That no government official or group of officials anywhere in the United States has the legal right to make up an official prayer and sanction its use in schoolrooms.

The decision is at once narrow in scope and broad in possible implications. It was based on the constitutional prohibition against laws "representing an establishment of religion."

Court Majority
The court majority said this prohibition "must at least mean that in this country it is no part of the business of government to compose official prayers for any group of the American people to recite as part of a religious program carried on by government."

This sentence, as it goes along, seems to limit more and more the scope of the decision. And it does. But note the two words "at least."

They imply that the establishment clause, in the opinion of the court majority, may forbid a lot of other things the justices do not mention because they were not up for a decision.

Bible Reading
What about the reading of the Bible in public schools, for example? The decision does not mention this. But since there are many different versions of the Bible, not to speak of the Koran and other religious books, who is to select the one to be read? Some public officeholders, such as school board members, or persons designated by them?

Would Bible reading in public schools get by the Supreme Court as presently constituted? It would seem not, unless the Bible were read as part of a course in literature or history. The court decision noted that "the history of man is inseparable from the history of religion."

Studying the attitude of the present court there seems little chance that any broad program of federal aid to education in parochial or other church-connected schools would get by, if enacted.

But the majority opinion did say it was not knocking religion language out of "The Star-Spangled Banner," or interfering with many other manifestations in our public life of belief in God.

"Such patriotic or ceremonial occasions," the majority said, "bear no true resemblance to the unquestioned religious exercise" which New York school authorities inaugurated in the schools and which was struck down by the tribunal.

Many religious people are trying to find ways to preserve prayer in public schools. Some, like Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N. Y., have suggested that such school day begin "with a noncompulsory opportunity for a period of silent prayer and meditation."

In other words, the teacher might say: "Now boys and girls, there will be a moment of quiet, during which you may pray if you want to."

Services for Ogle Chemist In Chicago

OREGON — Funeral services for Dr. Nicholas Cheronis, 68, educator and authority in the field of organic chemistry who was killed Monday in an auto accident on the Northwest Tollway, will be held Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Church of the Annunciation, 1017 N. LaSalle St., Chicago. Friends may call at the Adinam Funeral Home, 4700 N. Western Ave., Chicago.

A scholarship memorial fund has been established. His son, Dion, Chicago, who was injured in the accident is listed in good condition at Resurrection Hospital. He suffered internal injuries. A daughter in New York also survives.

Dr. Cheronis, a native of Athens, Greece, recently retired from his post as head of the chemistry department of Brooklyn, N.Y., College, where he had been since 1950. He has been living in retirement at his home near Lowden State Park, Oregon, since February of this year.

He was the author of a number of technical works and textbooks on organic chemistry.

Tollway police said Monday they were unable to determine why his car went out of control. They said he was eastbound on the tollway when his car made a sharp turn to the left on the Toughey Avenue overpass near Des Plaines.

His car bounced off a guard rail and was hit headon by the auto of Richard Savidge, 45, Barrington. Savidge was also hospitalized.

Dr. Cheronis came to America in 1911 and was graduated with honors from the University of Chicago in 1919, and received his doctor of philosophy degree there in 1929.

Pioneer Seed Co. retained Dr. Cheronis as an organic chemistry consultant and he had been experimenting with grapes at his Oregon home.

the federal government cut any local units in their states.

The Washington threat to the Guard was only one of the issues on which the governors said they want local control of almost everything that concerns the lives of their voters—except, of course, the federal aid without which the states could not operate today.

There was even an argument over whether the U.S. Supreme Court could interfere in a state's right to have a prayer said in its public schools. This stemmed from the court's decision that a state-dictated prayer in New York was illegal.

Injunction Frees Money From Gas Tax

MONMOUTH, Ill. (AP) — Circuit Court Judge Burton A. Roeth of Canton has granted an injunction freeing $100,000 of Monmouth's share of Illinois gas tax funds.

Roeth also denied Monday an effort to have the case, a test of the Prevailing Wage Act, transferred to Sangamon County. The money has been tied up by the state on the ground that Monmouth did not pay prevailing wages.

Monmouth and other cities and counties have charged the wage law violates at least three provisions of the state constitution.

Last year the Illinois Legislature amended a 20-year-old statute requiring payment of prevailing wages of an area to persons employed on state financed construction. The amendment allowed withholding of motor fuel tax funds from areas that did not comply.

The Monmouth suit contends local governments should determine their own wage schedules. The State Labor Department determines the prevailing wage for an area.

He was taken to the prison hospital. His condition was not immediately learned.

The altar of St. Patrick's Catholic Church was trimmed with arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums for the Saturday morning wedding of Miss Janice Kay Baltzell, daughter of Mrs. Mervin Baltzell, Sumner, and the late Mr. Baltzell, and Leslie Litts Jr., son of Mrs. Leslie Litts Sr., Dixon, and the late Mr. Litts.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Fr. Aloysius Neumann, and vocal numbers sung by Richard Mottavon, soloist, were "Ave Maria," and "Panis Angelicus." He was accompanied by Miss Judy Flanagan, organist.

Gown of White Silk
Wearing a gown of white pure silk, the bride was given in marriage by Ben Roe, Grand DeMolay. Lace appliques, embroidered with pearls, outlined the neckline of the gown and the tapered sleeves ended in points at her wrists. The bouffant skirt extended into a chapel train, and a coronet crown of roses and pearls held her illusion veil. Her flowers were white roses arranged in a sheath bouquet.

Mrs. Jack Bass, Champaign, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and another sister, Mrs. William Hardacre, Bridgeport; Miss Ruth Shertz, and Miss Pat Solis, Dixon, served as bridesmaids. With her orchid sheath dress featuring an overskirt of matching chiffon, Mrs. Bass carried an arrangement of magenta tinted carnations and the bridesmaids wore identically styled frocks in blue complimented by bouquets of pink and white variegated carnations.

A lawn reception for 100 guests at the Grand Detour home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roe followed the ceremony with Miss Mary Jane Weinberg and Mrs. Roe acting as hostesses. Miss Jennie Brossman, Miss Beverly Warrick, and Miss Emile Redmon, college friends of the bride, served punch and wedding cake, and guests were registered by Miss Jackie Litts, sister of the bridegroom. Presiding at the gift table were Mrs. Yvonne Eccles, also a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Jacqueline Johnson.

How About a Second Honeymoon?

by
DAN BROWN

Let me ask you men a question. Do you have to be reminded that such and such a day is your wedding anniversary? I can understand. But I can't tell you what to do. I daresay your wife, smarter than you imagine, contrives some way to call the important date to your attention.

Maybe there ought to be some kind of a "reminder service" for forgetful husbands. How about that? A sweet voiced lady would phone you and say "Don't forget, Mr. Jones, that next Thursday is your wedding anniversary." Wouldn't that be wonderful?

Then you could come here, buy her a lovely gift, have us wrap it appropriately—and on the Big Day she would be so thrilled! You could even take a SECOND HONEYMOON—perhaps with her wearing a beautiful new and modern wedding band chosen here. (The new ones really are exquisite. New, carved designs either plain or set with tiny baguette diamonds. And quite reasonable in price, too!)

Speaking of gifts, I want you to remember that we make a specialty of carrying loveliest jewelry articles. Toilet sets, atomizers, inlaid compacts of silver and gold, bracelets, earrings, scatter pins. Oh, the variety is almost unending. Come in today whether you have a wedding anniversary in the offing or not. We have one of the largest stocks of fine jewelry on display anywhere.

A cousin of the bride, Lawrence Bailey, officiated at the double-ring service, and vocal selections were offered by Miss Della Durham, accompanied by Miss Jan Bettner, Oregon.

Lace Gown
A jeweled neckline and long sleeves were features of the bride's ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace and a pearl and rhinestone tiara held her veil of silk illusion. Her necklace was a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a circular arrangement of white carnations with a white Bible. Mr. Elmore presented his daughter in marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Trueblood, Salem, aunt and uncle of the bride, attended the couple. Mrs. Trueblood wore a lavender satin sheath dress styled with an overskirt of lavender net, and a matching veiled headpiece. Lavender net and ribbons accented her bouquet of white pompons.

The Doctor Says

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.

Q—My wife just returned from our local hospital where she suffered a severe hemorrhage following birth of our first child. After the first of several transfusions, she had a severe chill and a very high temperature. From one of her nurses I learned that the blood donor for this transfusion was of a different race. Is there any danger in mixing bloods?

A—There are many factors that cause reactions during and following human blood transfusions. None of these, I assure you, is related to skin pigment. The Red Cross makes no racial distinction at its blood banks.

The most frequent cause for a reaction such as your wife suffered is a mismatch of blood types. There are, as you may know, four principal blood types and several subtypes. These types and subtypes hold for people of all races and nationalities.

A second cause for transfusion reactions is the presence of some impurity in the tubing or glassware. And a third known cause is too rapid injection, a condition first described to me as "speed shock."

Q—I have just returned from Hawaii, where I developed a rash after swimming. The rash was itchy and red and later became blistery. Have you any idea what might have caused the rash and how I can avoid it? I enjoyed my vacation in all other respects, and would like to return again next time I have a holiday.

A—Col. Crauer of the Tripler Army Hospital has just reported the appearance of just such an eruption as you describe from sensitivity to microscopic organisms that are present in seaweed. The eruption occurs only from June to September.

Consequently if you plan to revisit Hawaii during other months of the year, perhaps at Easter and Christmas times, you should have no difficulty.

And, if you go when the algae are in the seaweed on the windward side of the islands, make sure that you swim on the leeward side.

Dear Ann:

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband came home from an office retirement party last week at 1:30 a.m. He told me they had some liquor and there was dancing. He had lipstick on the side of his face and when I pointed it out he said "Several girls kissed me goodbye when I left."

Yesterday he brought home a gift-wrapped recording of "Begin the Beguine" handed it to me and said, "One of the girls at the office gave this to me." A note was attached in a sealed envelope. He asked me to open everything. The note read "I had a marvelous time. I hope we can dance again some time. Here is OUR song." She signed her name. My husband blushed and said, "She's nuts."

I've never had any trouble with him in all the years we've been married. Do you think he's getting silly like some men do when they reach their 50's? Shall I make an issue of it or would it be best to say nothing? — DUMB BUNNY

Dear Bunny: Laugh it off and forget it. Your husband sounds like a man with a crystal-clear conscience.

Any husband who would give his wife a present from another woman (plus a note in a sealed envelope) and ask her to open everything isn't about to begin beginning.

Dear Ann Landers: What do you think of a young man (still in college) who has been married for over a year but is afraid to tell his mother? He claims she will kill herself.

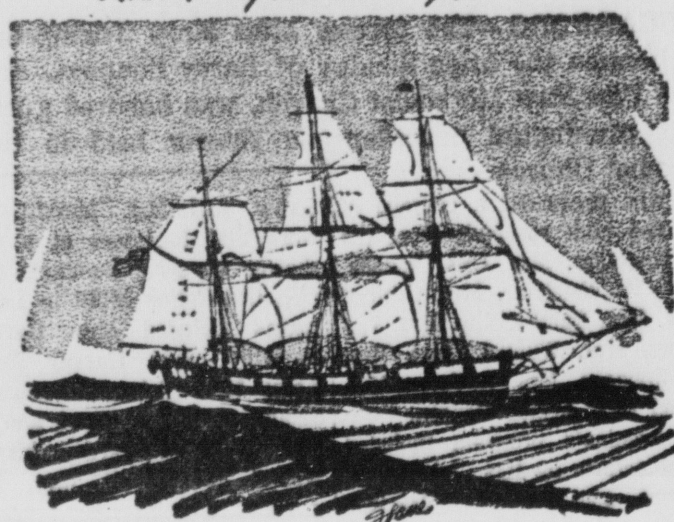

The young man has been living at home and the bride has been living with her folks. The girl's parents know about the marriage and are not saying anything. They figure it's up to the couple.

The boy's mother has always been violently opposed to the girl because of a difference in religion. Both the boy and the girl are devout and will not change. They bicker continually and their unhappiness is apparent to everyone. This is such a mess no one knows what to do. Can you help? —P.L.

Dear P.L.: The young man needs a doctor (for his head) and the bride needs a lawyer and two clergymen to investigate the legality of the marriage. I further recommend a marriage counselor who can help them learn to live together, if they must.

Dear Ann Landers: We know what to do with stray dogs, but what can be done with stray children? Yes, I know the youngsters are not to

Old Glory was first displayed at sea by John Paul Jones aboard the RANGER, November 1, 1777

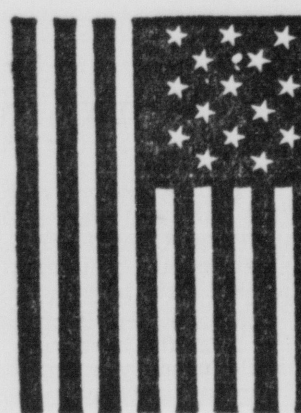

First displayed in ground combat on August 16, 1777 at the battle of Bennington Vermont.

The stars and stripes design was authorized by Congress on June 14, 1777. The design was taken from the Washington family coat of arms.

The Flag We Honor

The first flag had 13 stars and 13 stripes. In 1795 it was changed to 15 stars and stripes in order to accommodate 2 new states. In 1812 it was changed to 13 stripes and 20 stars. Each state thereafter was to add one star.

Only these four national flags are older than ours.

I find it impossible to make a picture about the H-bomb and its effect on modern man. I can only imagine the single scene: a child's face. That picture will be very short, one minute perhaps, and is not to be shown.

Summer Doldrums May Be More Relaxed This Year

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The summer doldrums this year may be a bit more relaxed than usual. Part of this is due to the fatigue showing up in many industrial lines after months of expansion. Part is due to new labor patterns calling for longer vacations.

Together these add up to more plant shutdowns and longer ones in many communities.

And on the management side there is a tendency to wait and see what Congress will do about a number of issues hanging fire that could affect future business planning.

Some management planning may take shape after the Treasury announces at the end of the week its new rules for tax allowances for wear and tear.

Welcome Relaxation

Business will welcome whatever relaxation is granted. But many feel that the Treasury hasn't the power to go as far in setting new rules for depreciation allowances as industry feels it needs. This would require congressional action.

Also hanging fire is the tax cut issue. And business is inclined to wait and see in this instance, too.

Involved is timing—tax cuts now or in the next session of Congress. Also at stake is the kind of tax cut. Business naturally prefers a cut in corporate income tax rates, and a sharp reduction in the upper brackets of individual incomes, where business thinks it gets its funds for risk investments.

Labor naturally is advocating cuts in the lower personal brackets. It holds that this will increase consumer purchasing power at a time when it is needed.

While these issues are hanging fire, business planning may mark time. But just as much a deterrent is the current uncertainty as to whether a slackening recovery is foretelling a coming recession—and whether the jitters in the stock market mean a readjustment of prices to earnings potentials or reflect a blow to public confidence in the health of the economy.

Usual Slowdown

All of these things add to the usual slowdown in business at this time of year. But the slowdown probably would have been more noticeable this year in any event.

Industry vacations have been in-

But if more plants are idle for more days, there are other lines of business to reap a benefit from it. More leisure time can mean more spending for recreation—boating, fishing, travel.

The industrial production index may drop this summer. But a number of service industries should report nice gains. Personal income totals are high. Americans have a huge total of savings on which to draw.

If business relaxes a bit more than usual this summer, maybe a lot of Americans will be relaxing, too.

The weather is scheduled to be pleasant and fair for Dixon's Fourth of July. A high temperature of 84 degrees is predicted.

Phil Lennon and Dave Beaman are now vacationing in Biloxi, Miss., where they are deep sea fishing. They also plan to visit the French quarter in New Orleans. They are to return in 10 days.

James Buchannan of this city has been awarded the contract for the hauling of mails to and from the postoffice and depot, and has taken up his new duties, with a fine new truck.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hofmann, 507 E. Everett St., announce the engagement of their daughter Helen Lucille, to O. B. Gerlach of Hillsboro.

They have recently returned from a visit at the Gerlach home and the Hillsboro newspapers carried the following article:

"Miss Lucille Hofmann of Dixon and Otto, better known as 'Bud' Gerlach of Hillsboro will be married this summer although the exact date has not been set. Informal announcement of their plans was made to relatives some months ago."

Miss Hofmann is prominent in Dixon social circles and is an accomplished musician. After graduating from the Dixon high school, she studied at the Conservatory of Music, Lawrence College, Appleton, Wis., and for many years was organist at the First Presbyterian church in Dixon. Mr. Gerlach was born and reared in Hillsboro and with the class of 1926 was graduated from Hillsboro Community high school. In the spring of 1930 he received his degree in engineering from the University of Illinois. Since that time he has been employed by the state highway department in the Dixon vicinity.

At St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Grand Detour, Miss Margaret Dale Rogers today became the bride of John Alexander Culley of Evans-ton. The quaint stone church was attractively adorned with Madonna lilies entwined in green branches, the unusually accomplished and beautiful bride, attired in her mother's wedding dress—a lovely ivory lace over satin—completed the attractive picture. She carried a small bouquet of Lilies of the Valley and other white spring flowers and was attended by Miss Ruth Thompson of Pittsburgh, Pa. Miss Rogers was given in marriage by her father, Oliver M. Rogers Sr. Mr. Culley was attended by Oliver Rogers Jr., brother of the bride.

On their return from their wedding trip to Estes Park, Colo., they will make their home at the corner of Third and Artesian Place.

Long before the end of summer, a woman begins to wonder: How schoolteachers ever manage to get through nine months of the year when three months can seem so long?

Why she ever thought she wanted such a big yard? If that vacation trip was only just a month ago?

Why the neighbors' children always seem to be at her house? If next year summer camp wouldn't be good for the children?

If the beautiful sun tan she worked so hard to get isn't beginning to look a bit fallow?

How one family can eat so much, get so many dishes dirty and pile up such big washings?

What it would be like to go to one of those well-known retreats where wealthy women lull around in luxury while a staff of beauty experts make them over?

When she is going to be able to stop watering the lawn, and if keeping a lawn green during weeks of drought is really worth the effort?

If it wouldn't be nice for grandma and grandpa to have the children for a couple of weeks?

When she'll be able to get out of those limp cotton dresses and into some nice crisp fall clothes?

If she is ever going to get around to reading all those books she promised herself she would have time for in the summer?

Why the family took its vacation early in the summer when the time a housewife really needs one is at the end?

Summer is the time when all good men should come to the aid of their families and take them on vacation.

Rock Hudson Blasts Star System Critics

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—"I'm incensed!" exclaimed Rock Hudson.

Rock, one of the world's film box office favorites, was angry at recent critics — most of them anonymous studio spokesmen—who have predicted the Hollywood star system is through.

Their reasons are it is too expensive and places too much power in the hands of capricious actors and actresses.

Hudson, one of the first stars to fight back publicly, spoke his mind at a recent luncheon at a theatrical haunt here. He expressed particular annoyance at criticism blaming stars for running up costs on two of history's most expensive movies — "Mutiny on the Bounty," and "Cleopatra."

"It's nothing but sensationalism — the way Marlon Brando and Elizabeth Taylor have been abused as persons," he fumed.

"The salary of a star isn't the prohibitive factor. It's studio errors that usually run up the bills. Then someone wants to put the blame on the star."

"Well, there are a lot of people who are against the star system — but most of them are not stars. I don't see anything against the star system.

"In any case, it is the public that makes the system. The people pick their own favorites."

Out of System

With that blast out of his system, the big, good-natured ex-letter carrier from Winnetka, Ill., relaxed and pitched into his steak.

Rock reminisced about some of the other jobs he had held before he soared to success as a movie actor. He was a short order cook, soda jerk, piano mover, railway expressman, butcher and grocery clerk.

"I think I had most fun being a short order cook," he said. "I still enjoy cooking at home—when I can show off."

"Every job has its pros and cons. The main pro about film acting for me is that, if I have to work, it's the only work I love to do."

"But I'd rather lie on a beach. I could spend all my life on a beach."

"The main con trouble with acting? There isn't enough anonymity."

"Therefore you have to restrict yourself about where you go and what you do. Sometimes, in some places, you can't even get out and go for a walk."

"And being in the public eye forces you to be too conscious about yourself. You have to worry about a lot of small concerns that shouldn't really matter—such as whether your tie is straight."

Rock, says his goal is "never to stop enjoying life. I like to get interested in new projects, exhaust them, then go on to new projects. I've tried sailing, skin diving, water skiing and golf."

If your eyesight is good, if you can keep in condition and generally if you can stand the gaff, there's no reason why an astronaut wouldn't be able to fly at 50.

Patterson, Liston Ink Pact For Sept. 25 Title Fight

CHICAGO (AP)—Heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson took pen in hand and quickly wrote his name to the contract. Sonny Liston, the challenger, laboriously wrote his name and concluded formalities Monday for one of the big championship fights in years.

Both fighters were well dressed and both gave an impression of confidence. They met in Commiskey Park Sept. 25 for the title.

"The fight won't last long," said Liston, meaning he will defeat Patterson in the early rounds. "I hope he's right," said Patterson. "Only I want it in my favor."

Patterson, weighing 193 pounds, "one or two over what I expect for the fight" chose his words well. "I'll step up training when I return to my training quarters at Highland Mills, N.Y. I've been boxing two or three times a week and two or three rounds each time. I'm not worried about my weight. I'll really work about five weeks before the fight."

"I watched Liston fight twice. Both times he won by a knockout. That's all I want to see. I want to see him at his best."

Liston had to swear before the Illinois Athletic Commission that he had no managers. The Philadelphia battler said George Katz was his manager technically but that Katz had relinquished all his rights for 10 per cent of Liston's earnings.

Jack Milon, a Philadelphia concessionaire, was declared Liston's advisor. Answering a flurry of questions concerning his managers, Liston said:

"I'm sure me and Pat will fight in the ring, not our managers."

Patterson was without managers or advisors and signed his own contract since his manager Cus D'Amato was not present.

Patterson will receive 45 per cent of the live gate and 55 per cent of ancillary rights. Liston gets 12½ per cent of the live gate or a $200,000 guarantee.

Promoters of the fight predicted a gross revenue of more than $5 million, with theater television providing more than $4 million.

Hutchinson Names 17 To All-Star Roster

CINCINNATI (AP)—Manager Fred Hutchinson of the Cincinnati Reds named 17 players today to complete the roster of the National League All-Stars for the first of two All-Star games against the American League and he had a few surprises.

He named a seven-man pitching staff that included only one left hander. That was Sandy Koufax, of Los Angeles, who had an 11-4 record through Sunday and tossed a no-hitter Saturday night.

He went right along with the selections of players and named all of the second choices in player balloting which had determined the eight starters, excluding the pitchers.

In doing that and the selection of two utility outfielders, he by-passed his own Frank Robinson, the National League's Most Valuable Player of 1961 and one of the hottest hitters in the loop in the last month or so.

After naming the second-choice outfielders—Stan Musial of St. Louis, inon, as manager of the 1961 National League champions, will manage the National Leaguers.

The starting players, except the pitchers, all of whom must play at least three innings except for injury or illness, were selected by players.

They will be Del Crandall of Milwaukee, catcher; Orlando Cepeda of San Francisco, first base; Bill Mazeroski of Pittsburgh, second base; Dick Groat of Pittsburgh, shortstop; Ken Boyer of St. Louis, third base; Tommy Davis of Los Angeles, left field; Willie Mays of San Francisco, center field, and Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh, right field.

Hutchinson named John Roseboro of Los Angeles to back up Crandall. For the rest of his infield reserves he named Ernie Banks of Chicago, first base; Frank Bolling of Milwaukee, second base; Maury Wills of Los Angeles, shortstop; and Jim Davenport of San Francisco, third base.

Hank Aaron of Milwaukee and Felipe Alou of San Francisco—Hutchinson picked veteran Richie Ashburn of the New York Mets and Johnny Callison of Philadelphia.

In addition to Koufax, Hutchinson named these pitchers to the squad for the first game, to be played at Washington on July 10 (records through Sunday in parentheses):

Don Drysdale of Los Angeles (14-4); Dick Farrell of Houston (5-8); Bob Gibson of St. Louis (9-6); Juan Marichal of San Francisco (11-5); Bob Purkey of Cincinnati (13-1) and Bob Shaw of Milwaukee (9-4).

The second of the All-Star games will be played in Chicago July 30 and Hutchinson can name three additional players for that tilt. Hutch-

Dodgers Power Back Into 1st; Injuns Win

Podres Question Plagues Bums

By The Associated Press

What's with Johnny Podres, the shrewd southpaw who can tie a modern major league record by striking out eight consecutive batters and hurl perfect ball for 6 2/3 innings, but is unable to pitch a full nine innings?

That was the puzzling problem confronting the Los Angeles Dodgers today after they regained first place in the National League Monday night by whipping Philadelphia 5-1 and 4-0 behind the sparkling pitching efforts turned in by Podres and Stan Williams.

Podres, whose medical history starts with a mysterious back ailment and runs through appendicitis, rib injury, pulled tendon and auto accident, tied the strikeout record set by Milwaukee's Max Surkont in 1953, and had a perfect game until two were out in the seventh.

An inning later he was standing under the shower.

Only Fourth

The 29-year-old left-hander's inability to go the distance now extends through 12 straight games. Off his 18-5 record last year, this figured to be his biggest season, but Monday night's triumph was only his fourth in 10 decisions.

Williams, on the other hand, did an about face and came through with a seven-hitter and his first complete game since April 30.

The twin triumphs, coupled with San Francisco's 8-5 loss to the Mets, put the Dodgers back on top again by a full game over the Giants.

Pittsburgh used a two-run single by Bob Skinner that touched off a heated dispute to beat Houston 4-2. Eddie Mathews hit a grand slam homer that led Milwaukee to a 7-3 triumph over St. Louis and Chicago and Cincinnati split. The Cubs won 6-5, the Reds came back, 4-3.

Willie Mays' 22nd homer sent the Giants into a temporary 5-4 lead in the seventh inning, but the Mets came back with four unearned runs in the eighth to put it away. A bases-loaded walk to Felix Mantilla tied it before Gene Woodling cleared the bases with a double and gave the Mets their first victory over the team that last represented New York in the NL. The victory went to Ken MacKenzie (3-3), with Stu Miller (4-4) taking the loss.

Break It Open

Shut out on the three hits for six innings by Colts' starter Hal Woodeshick (2-6), the Pirates broke it open with three runs in the seventh. Don Hoak's double drove in one run and Skinner's single knocked in the others. Skinner was ruled out after his hit because of interference by Pittsburgh coach Ron Northey, but the hit and runs were allowed to stand. That made Bob Friend (8-8) a winner.

Mathews' grand slam in the fifth inning off Ray Sadecki (5-5) paved the way for Lew Burdette (7-4) to record his seventh consecutive triumph with two-hit relief by Claude Raymond over the final 2½ innings. Raymond got the call when Charley James hit a three-run homer in the seventh after Burdette had flanked the Cards on four hits—retiring 14 in a row at one stretch.

Ernie Banks powered the Cubs and Cal Koonce (7-2) to the first game decision over the Reds with four runs batted in on his 22nd homer and a two-run single. That tagged Bob Purkey (13-2) with the loss. The Reds came from behind to take the nightcap as Gordie Coleman hit a two-run homer in the last of the ninth off Don Elston (2-4). Elston had nailed the opener for Chicago by choking in the eighth to put it away. A bases-

Billie Jean Moffit Holds U.S. Hopes at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Billie Jean Moffit, the giant-killer of Wimbledon, faced a tough quarter-finals match against Britain's Ann Haydon today after two restful days free from tennis.

"I guess I needed the lay-off," said the girl from Long Beach, the top seed, Australian star Margaret Smith.

"Last week was a pretty hectic time for me—just about the most exciting week in my life. I need relaxation more than practice at the moment."

Sole Hopes

With two other Americans, Billie Jean carries the sole remaining hopes of the United States. The men's field is reduced to four Australians.

Darlene Hard, of Long Beach, Calif., faces Mrs. Vera Sukova of Czechoslovakia today, and Mrs. Karen Hantze Susman of Chula Vista, Calif., plays Renee Schuurman of South Africa.

In the fourth quarter-final Maria Bueno of Brazil is matched with Lesley Turner of Australia. The Brazilian star, stricken with jaundice and out of tennis for most of last year, is bidding to regain the crown she won in 1959 and 1960.

Bouts Out

In the men's singles Monday, Rafael Osuna of Mexico, a student at the University of Southern California—and the last hope of the new world—bowed out to Neale Fraser of Australia.

Osuna went out fighting after staging a thrilling recovery before an enthralled sell-out crowd of 14,000 on Wimbledon's center court. He lost the first two sets, won the next two, but eventually lost 3-6, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4, 2-6.

Future League

Franklin Life topped Dixon Body Shop 3-2 in a Future League baseball game Monday night at Washington Field.

Gene Gentry, the Franklin Life fireballer gave up only 4 hits, including a pair of doubles by Schmiedebush, and he struck out 9 batters. Steder, the Dixon Body Shop twirler, also pitched brilliant ball and he yielded only 3 hits, striking out 6 Franklin Life Batters. Henry of Franklin Life hit a double.

Carry Back, Kelso Meet at Aqueduct

By The Associated Press

Six major stakes are scheduled for the Fourth of July, always one of the big days at the nation's thoroughbred tracks, and a second summit clash of Kelso and Carry Back is the headliner.

Kelso, horse of the year for the last two seasons, and Carry Back meet in the $100,000-added Suburban handicap at Aqueduct. The 5-year-old Kelso, owned by Mrs. Richard C. duPont, carries top weight of 132 pounds in the 1¼ mile event, while Mrs. Katherine Price's 4-year-old Carry Back has 126.

Rex C. Ellsworth's Prove It, winner of the $50,000 Inglewood Handicap last month at Hollywood Park, heads the line-up for the $50,000 American Handicap at that track. Jaenot Stable's Onk will attempt to win his second consecutive Stars and Stripes Handicap, a $40,000 event on the Arlington Park grass course.

Darby Dan Farm's Primonetta seeks her third straight 1962 victory in the $25,000 Molly Pitcher Handicap for fillies and mares at Monmouth Park.

Two-year-olds clash in the $20,000

Dover Stakes at Delaware Park, and the $15,000 Mayflower Stakes at Suffolk Downs—both 5½-furlong races.

Carry Back equalled the Aqueduct track record of 1 minute 33.3 seconds for the mile when he packed 123 pounds and won the $100,000 Metropolitan Handicap on Memorial Day. Kelso, lunging 133, staggered home sixth in his first start of the season. Since then, Kelso won his only other race easily, and Carry Back has been idle.

Cleveland Only 1/2 Game Out

By The Associated Press

Subtract Dick Donovan from Cleveland and the Indians very well could be floundering around in the second division.

As it is, the hopeful Indians are just a half game off the American League pace being set by the New York Yankees and Los Angeles Angels.

The Indians, in the throes of a five-game losing string that had knocked them out of first place, called on Donovan to be the stopper Monday night.

The tall right-hander, acquired in the trade that sent fiery Jim Pier-sall to Washington, responded with a brilliant two-hit, 2-0 triumph over Baltimore in which he faced the minimum 27 batters.

The victory pushed his record to 12-3, which, subtracted from the Indians 42-34 season mark, would put Cleveland below .500 and in seventh place.

New York and Los Angeles remained a half-game up on the Indians, the Yankees beating Kansas City 8-4 and the Angels edging Washington 2-1. It left the Yankees with a .004 hold on first place. Minnesota lost to Boston 4-3 and went 1½ games off the pace, while Detroit edged Chicago 2-1.

Blew Lead

New York blew a 4-0 lead, fashioned on home runs by Roger Maris, Hector Lopez and Mickey Mantle, then rallied for four runs in the eighth against Kansas City. A sacrifice fly to Bill Skowron and Phil Linz' single each accounted for one run and Tom Tresh drove in two more with a single in the Yanks' winning rally.

A lead-off homer by George Alusik triggered a four-run Kansas City seventh inning that tied it up and chased Yank starter Bill Stafford. Luis Arroyo got the victory in relief, his first against two losses this season.

The Angels were out-hit 6-4, but half of them were homers, solo jobs by Steve Biko in the fifth and Bob Rodgers' tie-breaker in the ninth. Tom Morgan (2-2), third Los Angeles pitcher, got the victory.

Boston Wins

Two straight force outs at the plate helped Boston out of an eighth-inning jam and dropped Minnesota a full game back of Cleveland. With the bases loaded and none out in the eighth, the Red Sox' Mike Fornieles got Bob Allison to bounce back to the mound and Earl Battey

TRIPLE MASTERS WINNERS

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Of the three golfers who have won the Masters three times the feat of Arnold Palmer appears more impressive.

Jimmy Demaret won his three within eight years. Sam Snead got his trio within six years. Palmer's three have been spread over five years.

Snead won his third in 1954 at age 42. Demaret was 39 when he won No. 3 in 1950. Palmer's third Masters came this spring at 32.

50-DELAYED HIT

The delayed hit, sometimes referred to by experienced players as release, is one of the hardest things to describe.

It is a feel brought about by basics. Perhaps to better describe the delayed hit, it should be said it is created by doing things in sequence.

The two most important phases of the swing are the takeaway and the first movement made from the top of the backswing toward the ball. If the golfer tries to hit from the top of the swing, he will be hitting too soon, or from the top as it is called. He must delay applying full power.

This is done by first shifting his weight to the left side. If a player has made a good backswing with his weight on his right side, it is impossible for him to shift his weight too fast. The faster the better.

As the weight is shifted, the hands drop to a lower position and his hips, which have turned away from the line of flight as he took the club back, will turn toward the line of flight. It is this movement that brings the hands into proper hitting position. The legs are most important in the delayed hit.

"Tremendous leg action"

Pictures of two of the greatest swingers, Sam Snead and Ben Hogan, show tremendous leg action.

Goldwater Boycotts GOP Governors' Parley

By JACK BELL
HERSHEY, Pa. (P)—Sen. Barry Goldwater's boycott of the All-Republican conference drew sharp criticism today from four GOP governors.

Govs. John H. Reed of Maine, Norman A. Erbe of Iowa, Robert E. Smylie of Idaho and George D. Clyde of Utah voiced strong support for the new Republican organization formed last Saturday at former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

In Gettysburg, a spokesman for Eisenhower said the general had not read Goldwater's statement and therefore could not comment.

Smylie said he thinks Goldwater is "entirely wrong about his approach to this matter."

"This conference will give all of the elements of the Republican party an opportunity to come forward with their views," Smylie said. "I think this is a very healthy thing for the party."

Each of the four governors said in his own way in separate interviews he believes Goldwater, a spokesman for conservatives, is making a mistake in turning his back on a conference sponsored to give governors, state party officials and non-office holders a voice in party affairs.

The Arizona senator, who heads the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, wrote National Chairman William E. Miller Monday that leaders of the new conference group are people who caused most of our party troubles.

"It is unthinkable," he said, that they should be given another opportunity to lead us down the path of destruction. Let's be done with these splinter groups."

Grandpop, Grandson Reunited

MOLINE (P)—An Ohio grandfather, 85, has been reunited with his 26-year-old California grandson in Moline after a separation of more than 25 years. The octogenarian also learned he is a great-grandfather.

A cheerful meeting took place Monday in the office of the Moline Businessmen's Association between M. J. LeLanghe, a farmer living near Toledo, and Maurice L. LeLanghe of Imperial Beach, Calif.

The reunion move was started by the grandfather several years ago when he decided to will his farm to the grandson he had last seen as a 6-month-old baby in Moline.

The Ohio man learned that he has a great-grandson, Maurice Leopold Jr., 15 months, and he plans a trip to California to "look at the young fellow."

Denies Sale of Liquor to Killed Mendota Minor

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (P)—Frank Nordie, operator of the Gateway Tavern near Utica, has denied he sold package liquor April 7 to a teen-ager who was involved a short time later in a fatal accident.

Nordie told the Illinois Commerce Commission Monday neither he nor his bartender, Larry Ator of Utica, sold any package liquor during the hour preceding the time of the accident near his tavern.

Nordie's license was ordered suspended for 21 days following the auto-truck accident in which Duane Worsley, 19, of Mendota, was killed. Others in the auto were Frank Berger, 16, Estelle Thomas, 17, and Susan Harris, 15, all of Mendota. Berger told the commission the four stopped by the tavern, located near the intersection, after attending a drive-in movie. Berger said he believed Worsley purchased a package in the tavern. The auto was struck a short time later as it crossed U.S. 6. The liquor commission took Nordie's appeal of the suspension under advisement.

Doctors Save Man's Crushed Arm

LOS ANGELES (P)—"I told them to save my arm if they could," said the 61-year-old laborer. "I helped the doctors with a little prayer."

And save it they did, say the surgeons at Orthopedic Hospital. Dr. J. Vernon Luck, medical director, described the circumstances at a news conference Monday.

Robert Orona, of suburban Pico-Rivera, was at work last Aug. 24 when a road-tamper crushed and tore off his left arm. He was taken to the hospital an hour later.

Dr. Luck found two of the three main nerves intact in a two-inch strip of flesh from which Orona's arm was dangling. A long section of the third nerve was missing along with bone and muscle.

While Dr. Luck told of the two-hour operation, Orona wiggled five fingers at the end of an L-shaped arm that observers compared to a coarsely shaped hamburger with a tissue-thin glaze of skin.

Dr. Luck said: "Surgery has advanced to a point where it is proper to try to save extremities we once would have amputated. We joined the severed bone with a rod, then sewed the arteries together and took skin grafts from the man's thigh."

Dr. Luck said the result is "much better than an artificial arm, and it will get better. He can hold things with his fingers and by using his shoulder can lift light objects. He should be able to do some sort of light bench work after a time."

The elbow joint is fused and the biceps are gone, but Orona said he has "only a little pain now" and Dr. Luck said even that will go away.

HE'S READY AND WILLING
BISBEE, Ariz. (P)—Cosme Martinez, 18-year-old Bisbee High School senior, is ready and willing to accept an offer he received from the Air Force.

Martinez' letter from an Air Force recruiter read:

"The Women's Air Force welcomes your enlistment. The WAF is a most distinctive group of young ladies. You may enjoy a new and exciting social life. There are unequalled opportunities for you as a member of the WAF."

The Bisbee boy says he hopes the Air Force won't back out on the offer.

The Rev. Mr. Link was originally of Des Moines, Iowa, and his wife was from Eldena. He has served as pastor of the Zion EUB Church at Pomeroy, Iowa, for about two years, while residing at LeMars, Iowa, and attending Westmar College there.

Israeli Mother Gets Son After Religious Dispute

NEW YORK (P)—Crying for joy, a small, dark-haired Israeli mother has been reunited with the 10-year-old son she hadn't seen since he was abducted three years ago in a religious dispute.

Ida Schuhmacher planned to take the child back to his homeland as soon as possible after U.S. immigration officials turned him over to her today. She said she wasn't interested in prosecuting the religious zealots who spirited him away.

"I am only interested in getting my child," she said.

Mrs. Schuhmacher, 37, arrived from Israel by plane Monday night and was taken immediately to an immigration office to see her son, Yosef, whom she calls "Yossele."

The recognized each other immediately, an official said. Mrs. Schuhmacher rushed to embrace the youth, crying over and over in Hebrew "My boy! My boy!"

Peter Esperdy, district director of the Immigration Service, said the boy had been found Saturday at the home of Rabbi Sanzli Gertner, a member of the ultra-Orthodox Hasidic sect, in Brooklyn. The youth had been living there under the name of Jacob Yankele Gertner.

Esperdy said the Gertners neither disputed the identification of the boy as the missing Yosef Schuhmacher nor claimed the right to keep him.

Mrs. Schuhmacher put the boy in the care of her grandparents, Rabbi and Mrs. Nahman Starkes, in Jerusalem in 1957 because the Schuhmacher's, recent immigrants to Israel from the Soviet Union, did not have a proper apartment at the time.

When they asked for him back three years ago, the rabbi refused on grounds there would not be enough Orthodox discipline in the home. Then the child disappeared.

'Teachers Can't Strike, Teach Good Citizenship'

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Public school teachers were advised today "you can't go out on an illegal strike one day and expect to go back to your classroom and teach good citizenship the next."

Arthur F. Corey, executive secretary of the California Teachers Association said, "The strike as a weapon for teachers is inappropriate, unprofessional, illegal, outmoded and ineffective."

Corey's remarks at the 100th annual convention of the National Education Association continued an NEA barrage against teacher unions.

In an interview elaborating on a speech to be given later today, Corey said teachers cannot be expected to remain forever silent in the face of intolerable working conditions.

If professional negotiations with the school boards fail, he said, teachers should work through their professional organizations to apply sanctions against the school district involved.

When sanctions are applied, Corey said, "We advise the public through newspapers, radio and television that, in the opinion of the California

Teachers Association, conditions in the district are not conducive to professional work by teachers.

"We refuse the district the use of our teachers placement service, and we notify every teacher placement office in the United States of our stand."

"This brings the full force of public opinion to bear on the district. Public opinion carries a lot of weight where the schools are concerned."

Sanctions are never applied until

Brazilian Deputies Pick Head

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP)—The Chamber of Deputies today approved Senate President Auro Soares de Moura Andrade to be Brazil's premier, ending a week's government crisis.

Andrade, 46, a conservative and one of Brazil's youngest senators, was approved by a 225-51 vote after a six-hour session.

Andrade told the chamber he would make the battle against inflation the first order of business for his government. He also vowed to work for agrarian, banking and tax reforms but said Congress would have to pass the necessary laws.

He said he would retain the foreign policy of the last government headed by Premier Tancredio Neves and would maintain all of Brazil's international commitments.

Neves' Cabinet resigned June 26 so some of its members could qualify as candidates in the October congressional election.

The Chamber of Deputies last Thursday rejected President Joao Goulart's first nominee, controversial Foreign Minister Francisco San Tiago Dantas, who was accused of following a soft policy toward the Castro regime in Cuba.

Ohio Board Has Meeting

OHIO — At the June meeting of the Ohio Village Board, bills allowed amounted to $1584.16, motor fuel tax for May amounted to $234.61, and the one half cent municipal tax for March was $317.38.

It was noted that 20 persons owed a total of $531.00 water rent. This list was made of persons owing over $10.00 for the last four months. If these bills are not taken care of within the next ten days the water service will be discontinued and a charge will be made to have the service re-instated.

Lou Pfuhl from the C. K. Willett office at Dixon and a representative from the White-Phillips Bonding Co., was also present at the meeting.

Preparations were made for familiarizing the people of the community regarding establishing a sanitary sewer system. In the coming weeks, brochures will be sent to people of the district, and on July 10, a meeting will be held in the school. An election will be held July 14 to vote on the matter.

East St. Louis

County Officer Renews Club's Liquor License

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—Liquor licenses of three St. Clair County night spots—one of the site of a recent shooting—have not been renewed by the county excise commissioner, Francis J. Foley.

The three are the Club 88, The Crossroads—both Canteen Township spots featuring strippers who double as B-girls—and the Whirl-A-Way on Illinois 15 one mile east of Belleville—charged with serving drinks to teenagers.

The Club 88 was the scene of a June 23 shooting in which two men were wounded. Police said the bomb explosion in a car at Cahokia Downs race track last Saturday night was an aftermath of the Club 88 shooting. Four bartenders were injured and hoodlum Charles (Jeff) Hollis—termed by authorities as the chief target—lost both legs and an eye.

Chairman Cook County Board Dies

CHICAGO (AP)—John J. Duffy, president of the Cook County Board of Commissioners who once had his home bombed during a dispute over legalizing pinball machines, died today.

Duffy, 63, entered the Little Company of Mary Hospital in suburban Evergreen Park two weeks ago. The nature of his illness was not disclosed.

A Chicago city councilman for 15 years, Duffy was elected to the county board in 1950. He became president of the board in April, 1961, after the death of Daniel Ryan.

It was in 1948 that Duffy proposed a city ordinance legalizing pinball machines. At the height of the pinball battle, two sticks of dynamite exploded on the front porch of his South Side Chicago home.

No one was injured but the blast shattered the windows in the Duffy home. The bombing was never solved.

Three years, 7 months and 30 days elapsed between Pearl Harbor and explosion of the first atomic bomb on Hiroshima, Japan.

Disunity Plagues Both Major Parties

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy had hardly finished complaining about Democratic disunity when the Republicans ran out of harmony, too.

They talk otherwise but neither party looks overly confident about the November elections. Neither has any particular reason for pride in its record in Congress this year.

The Democrats, as a party, look worse than the Republicans if only because they have such big majorities in Congress they could have put through a substantial legislative program if they stuck together.

The didn't. The record so far is dismal.

Kennedy admitted at his news conference last week it has been a rather sad-sack record for the Democrats in Congress because a number of them have been voting with the Republicans for years.

Happy Ike

In a much happier mood former President Dwight D. Eisenhower had 150 Republican leaders to his Gettysburg farm over the weekend and pleaded for party unity.

This get-together received a lot of publicity. But it is questionable it will achieve the unity Eisenhower seems to have in mind. In one case, that of Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, it accomplished the opposite.

Goldwater, who has made a career of being a conservative Republican, issued a kind of personal declaration of independence Monday a couple of days ahead of the Fourth of July.

It was at Eisenhower's Republican rally that William E. Miller, the party's national chairman, unveiled his plans for what is called the All-Republican Conference.

Organization

This organization is supposed to bring together, periodically, Republican leaders from Congress, state and local governments and private life to consider public issues.

What this could accomplish isn't clear at all because it couldn't hope to set party policy if only because not all Republicans see eye-to-eye, as Goldwater quickly demonstrated.

In a letter to Miller Monday he turned his back on the idea of such a conference group by saying leaders of the group are "the same people who caused most of our party trouble."

He added: "It is unthinkable that they should be given another opportunity to lead us down the path to political destruction."

Between Elections

Between presidential elections Republican leaders in Congress—like Everett Dirksen of Illinois in the Senate and Charles Halleck of Indiana in the House—seem to regard themselves as the party's leading light.

Their weekly Ev and Charley television appearance would indicate this although their routine before the cameras is hardly the kind that kindles political fires.

At Gettysburg, neither Dirksen nor Halleck endorsed Miller's idea for an All-Republican Conference where Republicans, who are not in Congress, might try to tell them what to do.

Dirksen said that while he favors party unity "different people have different ways to arrive at unity."

Disunity

The evidence of disunity in both parties has somewhat the same effect as telling a grown man there isn't any Santa Claus because it demonstrates what is apparent to anyone not living in a political dream world.

The Democrats and Republicans, despite the party platforms they manufacture for election purposes every four years, are not solid, single and separate parties voting straight party lines except on rare occasions.

Since both are made up of liberals, reactionaries and a broad band of conservatives, the idea that either party represents a single view is one of the hard-dying American myths.

Crosby Son Has Nervous Breakdown

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lindsay Crosby, 24, will be hospitalized about a month with a nervous breakdown, says his uncle, Larry Crosby.

Lindsay, the youngest of singer Bing Crosby's four grown sons, entered St. John's Hospital in nearby Santa Monica Sunday.

He opened a singing engagement with brothers Philip and Dennis in Juarez, Mexico, last Thursday. They cancelled it and flew back here Saturday.

Larry Crosby said Lindsay also is suffering from influenza and is under the care of Dr. Robert Buckeley, a psychiatrist.

"Lindsay suffered a nervous breakdown last February when his wife, Barbara, was ill. I guess he just got up too soon," said the uncle. Lindsay's wife was gravely ill then and suffered a miscarriage. She formerly lived in Joliet, Ill.
